Autumn 2009: Number 5

Thurs 8th October 2009

Walk to School

Well done to all of you who are braving the weather and walking to school. Parents are now able to park at the village hall in the mornings and walk from there. Don't forget each day the children walk to school they will earn house points and the class who has achieved the most points each week will receive special treats. Happy Walking!!

Road Safety

In respect of 'Walk to School Month', next Tuesday and Wednesday we will be visited by the Road Safety Officers Team who will be giving a talk to all year groups about road safety activities. In addition to the talks, Class Three will be participating in 'Stepping Out Pedestrian Training' and will be walking around the village on a supervised risk assessed route.

Beetle Drive—Friday 16th October

Don't forget to come and join us in playing this fun family game on Friday 16th October. Everybody is welcome.
